

I'm tired of hearing long radio commercials on every station at the same time. Plus there is no classical music station in south Florida. What's wrong with giving us choices if we are willing to pay for it? Keep XM radio.